

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OF THE
UNITED STATES, RELATING TO THE MIAMI COLLEGE TOWNSHIP.

CHAPTER I.—Extract from ‘An act authorizing the grant and conveyance of certain lands to John Cleves Symmes and his associates.’—(Laws of the United States, Washington City, 1815, vol. 2, p. 287.)

1792.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That the President be, and he is, hereby, authorized and empowered, by letters patent as aforesaid, to grant and convey unto the said John Cleves Symmes and his associates, their heirs and assigns, in trust, for the purpose of establishing an academy, and other public schools and seminaries of learning, one complete township, conformably to an order of Congress of the second of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, made in consequence of the application of the said John Cleves Symmes, for the purchase of the tract aforesaid.*

President to convey one township to J. C. S. in trust, for an academy.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the several quantities of land, to be granted and conveyed as aforesaid, shall be included and located within such limits and lines of boundary as the president may judge expedient, agreeably to an act passed the twelfth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two,

A township for an academy to be located agreeably to act of 12th April, 1792.

* In Congress, October 2d, 1787, Ordered, that the petition of John Cleves Symmes, be referred to the board of Treasury to take order. (Journals of Congress, Way & Gideon, Washington, 1823, vol. 4, p. 19, appendix.)

1803. 'for ascertaining the bounds of a tract of land purchased by John Cleves Symmes.*—(Approved, May 5, 1792.)

1794. CHAP. II.—An Extract from John Cleves Symmes' patent for the Miami purchase, executed by George Washington, president of the United States, dated the 30th day of September, 1794.—(Laws of the United States, Washington City, 1815, vol. 1, p. 499.)

After various recitals, grants, and stipulations, the patent concludes:—

'In pursuance of the said act of the congress of the United States, hereinbefore mentioned, passed the fifth day of May, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two: It is hereby declared, that one complete township or tract of land, of six miles square, to be located with the approbation of the governor for the time being, of the territory northwest of the river Ohio, and in the manner, and within the term of five years, aforesaid, as nearly as may be, in the centre of the tract of land hereinbefore granted, hath been and is granted, and shall be holden in trust, to and for the sole and exclusive intent and purpose of erecting and establishing therein an academy and other public schools and seminaries of learning, and endowing and supporting the same, and to and for no other use, intent, or purpose whatsoever.'

1803. CHAP. III.—Extract from 'An act in addition to and in modification of the propositions contained in the act, entitled, "An act to enable the people of the eastern division of the territory northwest of the river Ohio, to form a constitution and state government, and for the admission of such state into the Union, on equal footing with the original states, and for other purposes." '—(Laws of the United States, Washington City, 1815, vol. 3, p. 542.)

1803. admission of such state into the Union on an equal footing with the original states, and for other purposes." *

Commissioners appointed to locate township.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Jeremiah Morrow, Jacob White, and William Ludlow, be constituted, and the same are, hereby, constituted and appointed commissioners, to do, perform, and transact all and every matter and thing that is necessary to be done in locating and registering the said college township, or thirty-six sections of land. And the said commissioners after being duly sworn, faithfully to discharge their trust, in this behalf, shall proceed without loss of time, to explore the vacant or unlocated lands of the United States in the land district of Cincinnati, and after due examination shall select such tract or tracts (as the case may require) as are the most valuable, having due regard to the quality of the land, the situation for health, the goodness of the water, and the advantages of inland navigation. And after the location shall have been so made and registered, the said commissioners shall procure two fair copies of the same location and entry from the register of the land office, one of which shall be transmitted to the secretary of the treasury of the United States, and the other shall be deposited with the secretary of the state of Ohio: Provided, however, That if any of the aforesaid commissioners should die, remove, or refuse to act, then and in that case, the two remaining commissioners shall proceed to locate and register the said college lands in the manner prescribed by this act.†

To be sworn.

Their duty.

Two of the commissioners may locate.

Compensation to be paid by the state, and charged to academy.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That each of the said commissioners, for each day which they are necessarily employed in executing their trust, agreeably in case any donation shall hereafter be made for particular purposes, relative to the design of this institution, and the corporation shall accept and receive the same, every such donation shall be applied in conformity to the intention to [of] the donor.

Treasurer to be chosen once in three years.

SEC. 12. Be it further enacted, That the treasurer of the said University shall be chosen by the trustees once in three years, who shall not be of the body of trustees; he shall, before he enters on the duties of his office, give bond to the corporation, in such sum, and with such securities, as the said corporation shall approve, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of said office, and rendering a just and true account when thereunto required, and also for delivering over to his successor in office, all moneys and securities, and other property that shall belong to the president and trustees of the said University, together with all the books and papers in which his proceedings as treasurer, shall be entered and kept, that shall be in his hands at the expiration of his office, and all money that shall be recovered by virtue of any suit at law, upon such bond, shall be paid over to the president and trustees aforesaid, and be subject to the appropriations above directed in this act.

To give bond.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That the lands appropriated and vested in the corporation, with the buildings which may be erected thereon for the accommodation of the president, professors, and other officers, students, and servants of the University, and any buildings appertaining thereto; and also the dwelling-houses and other buildings which may be built and erected on the lands, shall be exempt from all state taxes. 1809.

Lands exempted from state taxes.

SEC. 14. Be it further enacted, That until a president of the said University shall be elected and shall have entered on the duties of his office, and also in case of vacancy or the absence of the president, the said trustees shall appoint one of their own body to preside, and all the proceedings of the trustees, while acting under such circumstances, shall be considered in law as the act of the corporation, as fully and completely as when the president of the University shall preside.

Trustees may appoint one of their own body president.

SEC. 15. Be it further enacted, That the legislature of this state may grant any further and greater powers to, or alter, limit, or restrain in any of the powers by this act, vested in the said corporation, as shall be necessary to promote the best interest of the said University, with all necessary powers and authority for the better aid, preservation, and government thereof.

Legislature may extend or limit the powers granted by this act.

SEC. 16. Be it further enacted,* That the treasurer shall, in all cases where the rent of any person or persons have been due for three months, immediately transmit a certified copy under his hand and seal of the said corporation, to the collector of the said corporation, an accurate list of all such delinquents, which said list, certified as aforesaid, shall be sufficient power for said collector to distrain on the goods and chattels of each and every delinquent; and the same to advertise in three public places in the township in which said goods and chattels are distrained, ten days previous to sale; and the said collector shall then proceed to sell the same at public vendue, and the rents and costs forthwith to pay to the treasurer, and the overplus, if any,

PRESIDENT AND TRUSTEES
OF THE MIAMI UNIVERSITY.

CHAP. XXI.—Standing rules and orders of the president and trustees of the Miami University.

1. The president shall take the chair at the time to which the board shall have adjourned at their last session, shall immediately call the members to order, and on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the journal of the preceding session to be read.

2. He shall preserve decorum and order, decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the board.

3. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the president, before debated.

4. He, rising from his seat, shall put the question in this form, viz: you who are of opinion that (as the question may be), say, aye; contrary opinion, say, no; and shall then pronounce the decision of the board.

5. Any member may call for a statement of the question before the board.

6. All committees shall be appointed by the president, unless otherwise specially directed by the board.

7. The president shall not vote unless the board be equally divided.

8. All ordinances and resolutions shall be signed by the president, and attested by the secretary.

9. When a member is about to speak or deliver any matter to the board, he shall rise from his seat and address himself to—Mr. President.

10. When two or more members rise to speak, at the same time, the president shall name the person who is first to speak.

11. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is immediately interested.

12. Every member present, when the question is put, shall vote, unless the board shall, for special reasons, excuse him.

13. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to amend, to commit, for the previous question, or to adjourn.

14. Any member may call for a division of the question, where the sense will admit of it.

15. No new motion or proposition shall be admitted under color of amendment, as a substitute for the motion or proposition under debate.

16. Any member shall have a right to call for the yeas and nays; provided he shall request it before the question is put.

17. Every ordinance shall be introduced by motion for leave, or by an order of the board, on the report of a committee.

18. Every ordinance shall receive three several readings: the first for information, the second for amendment, and the third for its final passage.

19. All questions shall be propounded in the order they were made, except in filling up the blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be first put.

20. When a motion is made and seconded, at the request of any one member, the same shall be put in writing.

21. All officers, professors, tutors, &c., shall be elected by ballot.—(Adopted, March 27, 1810.)

CHAP. XXII.—An ordinance to regulate the leasing of the lands of the Miami University, and for other purposes.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the president and trustees of the Miami University, That the lands designated and set apart by the congress of the United States, for the endowment of the said University, shall be offered for leases at public auction, from time to time, in manner and form following; to wit: First, not more than the one-third part thereof, shall be offered for lease, at any one time, in lots agreeably to the plan and subdivisions thereof, heretofore made by the said University; nor shall any lot be leased at a less value than at the rate of two and an half dollars per acre.*

Lands to be leased at auction.

One-third may be offered at a time, for not less than $250 per acre.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That there shall be laid out on the same tract of land, a town, to be known and designated by the name of the town of Oxford,† which town shall consist of such a number of in and out-lots, as the president, by and with the advice and consent of such committee, as shall be appointed for that purpose, shall think proper to direct. The in or town lots to be four poles in width, by ten poles in length, with a sufficient number of streets and alleys, running through the same. The alleys to be one pole in width, and the streets, six poles in width. The out-lots to contain four acres each, with a sufficient number of streets and alleys of a sufficient width running through the same. There shall likewise be such lots, squares, or parcels of land set apart, as well for public uses, as for future disposal, in the same town, as the said president and committee aforesaid, shall think proper to direct.

Town of Oxford to be laid out.

SEC. 3. And be it further ordained, That so soon as

CHAP. XXIV.—An ordinance to amend, and in modification of the third section of the 'Ordinance to regulate the leasing of the lands of the Miami University and for other purposes.'

Preamble.

Whereas, It has been ordered by the third section of an ordinance to regulate the leasing of the lands of the Miami University, and for other purposes, passed at Hamilton, on the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ten: That the purchaser of every in or town lot (in the town of Oxford) and also of every four acre lot (adjoining said town) shall, (besides paying one-twentieth part of the purchase money at the time of sale) within forty days thereafter, give bond, with approved security, to the treasurer for the payment of the balance in two annual instalments. Notwithstanding which, several persons (purchasers) after the expiration of the forty days after the sales, came forward and offered their bonds to the treasurer which he did not think himself authorized to receive. Now in order to give a general notice and an equal chance to all purchasers of lots as aforesaid:

Purchasers of lots may comply with conditions of sale, on or before the 1st November, 1811.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the president and trustees of the Miami University, That any and every purchaser or purchasers of in or town lot or lots in the town of Oxford aforesaid, or of four acres lot adjoining thereto, at any of the former sales, who shall, on, or before the first day of November next ensuing the date hereof, pay up the part of the price of his lot which shall have become due according to the conditions of sales, and give bond with approved security for the balance to the treasurer, the same shall be received and the lot conveyed to the person or persons so complying. The third section of the ordinance aforesaid to the contrary notwithstanding.

Done at Hamilton, the fourth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

JAMES MCBRIDE, Secretary, pro. tem.

CHAP. XXV.—An ordinance supplementary to the several ordinances authorizing the sale or leasing of the country or farm lots of land of the Miami University.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the president and trustees of the Miami University, That the several lots or parcels of land belonging to the said University, which have heretofore been sold or leased and which have since, or may hereafter revert to the University by reason of the non-payment of the rent due thereon, agreeably to the provisions contained in the sixteenth section of the act of the general assembly of the State of Ohio, entitled, 'An act to establish the Miami University,' on application made by any person to the treasurer of the institution to enter or lease one or more of the said tracts so forfeited, the same shall forthwith be sold or leased to him, her or them, by the proper officers for the same sum and after the same rate for which it was at first sold or leased to the person who forfeited the same. The lease shall be executed in the same manner, and the same fees paid as heretofore provided for and established by this institution. And it is hereby provided and enjoined, that in all cases where there shall be two or more persons that shall apply at one time to the treasurer to purchase or rent any particular tract or parcel of land, the treasurer shall forthwith, prepare tickets and cause the parties thus applying to draw lots, and the party succeeding, shall have the preference.*

Lands reverted may be leased on application to treasurer.

SEC. 2. And be it further ordained, That any lots or tracts of land belonging to the University at this time, or which may hereafter revert, with improvements thereon, or of a productive nature, which cannot be sold or leased for the term of ninety-nine years renewable forever and for a rent or sum equal, at least, to that for which it formerly sold or leased; may be leased by the president, treasurer, and secretary of the institution for any term of time not exceeding one year, on such terms, or for such sum or price as the said officers, or a majority of them, shall deem reasonable.*

President to prosecute trespassers.

SEC. 3. And be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of the president to prosecute, or cause to be prosecuted any person or persons who shall or may have committed any trespass or injury on the lands of the said University.†

Collector to dis-train goods.

SEC. 4. And be it further ordained, That in all cases where process is put into the hands of the collector against those persons or delinquents who have failed to pay the amount of rent or interest due, it shall be his duty to make the rent or money due, together with all interest and cost accrued, of the goods and chattels of the delinquent or delinquents. Provided, he or they, have sufficient to pay the same, as is heretofore provided. But in the event that the goods and chattels shall not, in the estimation of the collector, be of sufficient value to meet and discharge the legal demand, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the collector to enter upon such lot or tract of land and take possession of the same in behalf of the institution. The collector for every re-entry and making his proper return to the secretary shall be entitled to receive the sum of fifty cents, and no more, from the treasurer of the University, on the certificate of the secretary.

For want of sufficient goods and chattels, to enter upon lot.

Fees.

Treasurer's duty in making out process.

SEC. 5. And be it further ordained, That in all cases where process issues to the collector against any delinquent or delinquents, it shall be the duty of the treasurer, to insert in the body of the instrument, the following clause, or words to the same effect: 'But in case there are not goods and chattels sufficient to pay the amount of said rent, interest, and costs, then, and

* Modified, by the 2d section of the ordinance of the 17th of March 1814, so as to authorize the treasurer to make leases of improved lots without the assistance of the president and secretary; (post chap. 26). Further modified, (post chap. 29) so as to grant leases for two years.

† By the ordinance of the 14th of April, 1819, it is made the duty of the collector to prosecute for trespasses committed on the lands of the Miami University; (post chap. 57).

in that case you will enter upon the respective lot or lots and take possession of the same in behalf of the University, and make a true and faithful return of your proceedings and doings in the premises within thirty days.'

SEC. 6. And be it further ordained, That in all cases where any lot or lots, or tract of land, which has or may have become reverted to the University, that so soon as the collector shall have made a legal return of the tract or tracts reverted, it shall be the duty of the secretary and treasurer of the institution to make a record of the same in their respective books of office; and the returns of the collector shall remain filed with the treasurer.

Collector's return to be recorded.

To be filed with treasurer.

Done at Hamilton, the sixth day of November in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

Attest, JOHN REILY, President, pro. tem.
Of the Miami University.

JAMES MCBRIDE, Secretary, pro. tem.

CHAP. XXVI.—An ordinance further to amend the several ordinances authorizing the sale or leasing of the country or farm lots of land of the Miami University.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the president and trustees of the Miami University, That no farm or country lot whatever, belonging to the University on which an improvement hath been made, and which hath, or which hereafter may revert to the University by reason of the non-payment of the rents due thereon, shall be subject to be again re-entered until all the arrears of rent, interest, cost, and charges whatsoever due thereon shall have been paid by the person applying for an entry of the same. Any former ordinance to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Improved lots not subject to entry until arrears are paid.

CHAPTER III.

Of ascertaining the progress of the students.

SECTION 1. Every instructor shall keep a roll of his class, which shall be called over at the hour of recitation, and the manner of their attendance noted. He shall also mark their performance in every exercise; this mark shall be common to all the instructors, and in connection with other circumstances which the faculty may deem important, shall determine the relative standing of the student at such stated times as the faculty shall appoint.

Instructors to keep a roll, and note performance.

SEC. 2. The several classes shall revise their studies as the preceptor of each may deem proper, and there shall be examinations of one class at a time, in presence of such persons as he may select. The three last days of every month shall be devoted to such examinations. Moreover, there shall be, at the end of each session, a general examination upon all the studies prosecuted during that session, at which time the relative standing of the students shall be announced.

Classes to revise studies.

CHAPTER IV.

Of the deportment of the students.

SECTION 1. The students are to consider themselves, and each other, as young gentlemen associated for the purpose of mutual improvement, and to behave themselves accordingly, avoiding all turbulence, rudeness, and violence.

Deportment of students.

SEC. 2. They are to treat the president, professors, and tutors, on all occasions, with the most profound respect; obeying, implicitly, all their lawful commands, and in every respect so demeaning themselves, as those who know that their characters for correct behavior is not less important, nor less at stake, than their character for intellectual acquirements:

SEC. 3. If any student shall neglect his studies, or interrupt the studies of another, or disturb any officer in his lawful employment, or be guilty of profane cursing or swearing, of intoxication, of riot, of striking a fellow student, of keeping the company of persons of known immorality, of playing at cards, dice, or other games of chance, or of any other thing grossly immoral, of which the faculty shall be the sole judges, he shall, at their discretion, receive any punishment short of dismissal or expulsion.

CHAPTER V.

Of the correction of misdemeanors and offences.

Students may be suspended, dismissed, or expelled.

SECTION 1. The government of the college shall be wholly of a paternal nature, and when the usual methods of private and public admonition shall fail to procure the entire obedience of any student, that student shall be suspended, dismissed, or expelled, as the case, in the opinion of the faculty, may warrant; but expulsion shall in no case be considered as final, unless approved by the board of trustees.

SEC. 2. Expulsion shall in no case be inflicted, except for offences of a highly aggravated nature, or on account of obstinacy in offence, after the milder punishments have been tried. It being understood, that no student, after he has been dismissed twice, or expelled, shall be readmitted.

CHAPTER VI.

Of the library.

Regulation respecting library.

SECTION 1. No student shall receive from the library more than two volumes at once, nor keep them longer than two weeks.

SEC. 2. The library shall be open for receiving and distributing books every Saturday, between the hours of two and five o'clock, P. M.

SEC. 3. Whoever shall keep a book from the library longer than two weeks, or shall injure a book, or permit it to be injured whilst in his possession, shall be fined six and one-fourth cents each week he detains the book from the library, and pay the amount of damages, in case of injury.

SEC. 4. The senior class, only, shall be allowed to take books from the library.*

SEC. 5. The faculty may designate such books as are not to be taken out.

SEC. 6. The professor of languages shall discharge the duties of librarian.

CHAPTER VII.

Of residence.

SECTION 1. The rooms in the college edifice shall be assigned to the students under the direction of the faculty. Students to occupy rooms.

SEC. 2. Every student shall reside in the room assigned to him, and not remove into another, without permission of the faculty.

SEC. 3. Every student, except at recitation or lecture, shall remain in his room during study hours, which shall be regulated by the faculty; and no stranger, without the knowledge of one of the faculty, shall be permitted to visit the rooms during those hours.

SEC. 4. The rooms of the students shall be visited, as the faculty may direct, and if any obstruction be put in the way of the visiting officer, he is authorized to cause it to be removed, even to the breaking of the door, at the expense of the occupants, who shall otherwise be called to account for their improper conduct. Faculty to visit rooms.

SEC. 5. Any damage done to the college property, ascertained to have been committed by a student, shall be paid for by him. Damage done where the offender cannot be discovered, shall be charged equally to all the students. Damage to be accounted for.

* Modified by resolution of 26th September, 1826; (post chap. 94).

CHAPTER VIII.

Of religious duties.

Students to attend religious exercises,

SECTION 1. There shall be prayers every morning and evening, by the president, or his substitute, at such hour as the faculty may appoint. •

SEC. 2. All the students shall be required to attend divine service twice every Sabbath, in the chapel, or at such other place of worship as their parents or guardians may direct.

SEC. 3. The faculty may appoint such other religious exercises as shall not interfere with their regular studies.

CHAPTER IX.

Of commencement and degrees.

Commencements, and conferring of degrees.

SECTION 1. The commencement shall be held on the last Wednesday of September, and the usual degrees conferred.

SEC. 2. On the day of commencement, such candidates as the faculty shall have previously selected, shall perform the exercises assigned to them, under peril, in case of non-compliance, of being refused their degree.

A. M.

SEC. 3. Candidates for the second degree, viz. Master of Arts, must give proof of their deserts, either by some public exhibition of talents, or by submitting to such tests as the faculty may appoint.

D. D.
L. L. D.

SEC. 4. No person shall be admitted to the degree of Doctor of Divinity, or of Doctor of Laws, unless his name be announced to the trustees six months before the commencement; and upon the favorable report of a committee appointed at the time of his nomination, upon proofs of his merit in that department of literature which the degree required may respect.
